ABOUT ME

I'm a driven person with a passion for challenges. I possess a keen eye for identifying opportunities. I thrive in competitive environments, finding them both stimulating and motivational. My ability to excel as a team player is matched by my creative prowess when working independently.

Once I grasp the intricacies of a system, I quickly find solutions to problems and come up with ideas to optimize the work process. High-pressure situations do not deter me; rather, they strengthen my resolve and contribute to my creativity. Additionally, I am recognized for my respectful demeanor, unwavering loyalty, thoughtful nature, and a strong sense of responsibility.

EDUCATION

Aug 2012 - Aug 2017
Tehran

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

I graduated with my bachelor's degree in urban planning in 2017 from Robat Karim Islamic Azad University. Studied the history of urban planning, the relation between human and the physical environment, but the majority of the education was to handle projects and plan for a new design or redesign of different areas in the city. Data gathering and data analysis had a central part.

My bachelor's degree has been approved by the Swedish Council for Higher Education (UHR).

with ideas to improve and streamline the work, which were then implemented. Since I was driven and ambitious from day one and I'm a natural leader, I quickly became ready for being an operations manager for the different sections.

WAREHOUSE OPERATOR

For some months I was a warehouse operator at Yun Express. My work routine consisted of unpacking shipments, performing quality checks on items and then re-pack them and decide if the packages met the quality requirements and sort them accordingly. I was also a stand-by truck driver and did this type of work in the mornings before my other assignments, thus, I had dual work roles.

REAL ESTATE AGENT

Leveraged two years of experience as a Real Estate Agent, honing exceptional interpersonal skills and advanced sales techniques. Transitioned from property leasing to the sale of apartments, offices, and houses.

BUTIKSBITRÄDE

Rapidly progressed from Sales Associate to a Key Holder position, demonstrating leadership and initiative. Trained by the company's designer in optimal retail space organization to enhance customer attraction and engagement. I did this while also pursuing full-time university studies, which led to a focus shift towards academic commitments.

MILITARY SERVICE

Did my military service in just under 2 years. tid gjorde jag värnplikten. While I had a vast variety of training and assignments, my key responsibility was within administration and office work.

Even though it was a tough time, it was an immensely educational time for me where I received a greater self awareness and understanding disciplin, leadership and the importance of teambuilding.
